JACKSON COUNTY.

Copperhead Tactics and Copperhead Carpet Baggers. JACKSON Co., W. VA., July 18. Editors Intelligencer:

You have a large number of subscribers in this locality, but you are seldom afflicted with correspondence from here, and this is all the spology I propose to make for troubling you with what I shall write to-day. Some little interest is taken in politics, especially by the-late so-called "Democrats and Conservatives," who are making some movements with the avowed and I believe with the sole object of turning out the persons now in office in this State, from the Registrars up to Governor, and especially the former, and putting themselves in trars up to Governor, and especially the former, and putting themselves in. And to effect this object, in addition to the beginning usually made south of Mason and Dixon's line, to-wit: the organization of the requisite number of orders of the "Ku-Klux Klau" and other societies "who choose darkness rather than light" for the reason given somewhere, they have imported from the State of Ohio some race stock—no draft horses, but that only suitable for the turf—well-trained and admirably adapted to the purposes of the party on account of having a pedigree, if any at all, not very well known, who go about lying and blowing about "Radical extravagance and corruption" and the "spotiess purity" of the Democrats and Conservatives whenever they can get a few hearers in the new school houses that have been built since the organic

Mark Twain writes the following letter to the San Francisco News: Mark Twain writes the following letter to the San Francisco News:

Messes Editoria:—I was expecting to sail for New York in the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's steamer of the 18th of June, but unforeseen circumstances compel a delay of a few days. I cannot sail till the 30th of the month. It is therefore proper that I should give this notice to those friends who have entrusted articles to my care for delivery to their relatives in the Atlantic States, so that they can send by parties who sail on the 18th such of them as demand expedition. I will give a list of the things I am speaking of, and those which will admit of delay until the 30th, can remain in my possession: 1 violin; I double-barreled gun; I package books; I do sheet music—negro ballads; I set castors—vinegar cruet missing; 2 scratch wigs for repair; I parkage books; I do sheet music—negro dead; another woman; 18 mining company prospectuses, marked "Please Circulate;" I valise—appears to be nothing in it; 6 photographs, consigned to different parties; I volume Tennyson; I white woman; 1 box salve; 2 accordeons; 1 overcoat; 1 set chessmen; 1 cow; 1 sandalwood fan; 1 rosewood dressing case; 5 meerchaum pipes; 2 specimen pins; some grass widows; 1 Hoe steam press, for repairs; 1 gridiron; 1 baby; 68 letters; I package gold coin; 1 ditto greenbacks; 23 trunks; another woman.

gold coin; I ditto greenbacks; 23 runks; another woman.

Besides these articles, I have to carry along a valise for myself, and a jug, and I may be discommoded unless some of my things go by the steamer of the 18th. The baby is not well, and appears to get worse all the time. I think may be it has got the mumps, or the consumption, or something of that kind. Those are things I do not know anything about. It must be one of those, because I have doctored it for fits and measles, and those things, but still she grows worse. She had better go by the steamer of the 18th. I do not think she will keep for the 30th. To tell the plain truth, I am sorry I agreed to take this baby along. A baby is too troublesome—altogether too troublesome. I have had a baby at sea, and I know. have had a baby at sea, and I know. Once I had twins on a ship, and I never suffered so much in my life. Please come and get this one, and ship it per steamer of the 18th. Most of the other artices had better go at the same time, especially the cow and the idiot. If I were relieved of those I could take some more women, and may be another trunk or two. MARK TWAIN.

A Paper Monopoly.

The Tribune says: The patent of the American Wood Paper Company (generally known as Mellier's patent,) expires on the first of next month, and the owners are making strenuous exertions to obtain an extension for seven years. We trust they will not succeed. They have misused their privileges in such a way as to create an odious monopoly in the manufacture of an article of prime necessity for the whole country, and it would be against public policy to grant a renewal. They claim the exclusive right to use alkalies in subduing straw to be made into paper; and as straw papers for printing and wrapping are now very largely in use and must continue so while rags are dear and scarce, the patent gives them an opportunity of keeping the price at an extravagant figure, and thus in a A Paper Monopoly. an extravagant figure, and thus in a measure checking the diffusion of intelligence. From every small mill these patentees exact a royalty of $10,-000 cash and five-eights of a cent a pound on the manufactured product; besides which we are credibly informed that they compel all manu-facturers who buy their rights to sign a bond agreeing to stop their mills when-ever ordered. Thus the company se-cures an absolute control of the paper market, which circumstance cought to be enough to defeat their ap-plication for an extension of the patent

MRS. SWYER, of Martingburg, died on Sunday evening, the 12th inst., from lock-jaw, produced by puncturing her toe with the iron tooth of a garden rake, on the Thursday previous.

A LITTLE boy named Smith, son of a widow, in Cooper township, Mason county, was run over by a log and instantly killed, on Friday, 17th inst.

The National Union Republican party of the United states assembled in National Convention in the City of Chicago on the 20th day of May, 1888, make the following declaration of principles:

1. We congratulate the country on the assured success of the reconstruction policy of Congress as evinced by the adoption in a majority of the States lately in rebellion of Constitutions securing equal civil and political rights to all, and regard it as the duty of the Government to sustain these Constitutions and prevent the people of such States from being remitted to a state of anarchy or military rule.

2. The guarantee by Congress of coula sufnillitary rule.

2. The guarantee by Congress of equal suf-frage to all loyal men in the South was de-manded by every consideration of public safety, of gratitude and of justice, and must be maintained, while the question of sufbe maintained, while the question of suf-frage in all the loyal States properly belongs to the people of those States.

3. We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime, and national honor re-quires the payment of the public indebted-ness in the utmost good faith to our creditors at home and abroad, not only according to the letter, but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted.

4. It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as national faith will permit.

5. The national debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honesity be done.

The debt is so to improve our credit that capitalists will seek to lend us money at low-er rates of interest to an we now pay, and must continue to pay, so long as repudiation, partial or total, open or covert, is threatened or saspected.

7. The Government of the United States or suspected.

7. The Government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy. The corruptions which have been so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew Johnson, call loudly for radical reform.

Andrew Johnson, call loudly for radical reform.

We profoundly deplore the untimely and tragic death of Abraham Lineoin, and regret the accession of Andrew Johnson to the Presidency, who has acted tracaherously to the people who elected him and the cause he was pledged to support; has nsurped high legislative and judicial functions; has refused to execute the laws; has used his high office to induce other officers to violate the laws; has employed his executive power to render insecure the lives, property, peace, liberty and life of the clitzen; has abused the pardoning power; has denounced the NationalLegislature as unconstitutional; has persistently and habitually resisted by every means in his power, every proper attempt at the reconstruction of the states lately in rebelilion; has perverted the public patronage into Senaiors.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European Fowers, that because a man is once a subject he is always so, must be resisted at every hazard by the United Stares as a relic of the fendal times, not anthorized by the law of nations, and at war with our national honor and independence. Naturalized citizens are entitled to be protected in all their rights of citizenship, as though they were native born. No citizen of the United States, native or naturalized, must be liable to arrest or imprisonment by any foreign Power to racts done or words spoken in this country; and if so arrested and imprisoned, it is the duty of the dovernment to interfere in his behalf.

10 late, war there were none emitted to more especial honor than the brave soldiers and seamen who endured the hardships of the camp and cruise, and imperited their lives in the service of the country. The bounties and pensions appropriated by law for these brave defenders of the Union are obligations never to be lorgotten. The widows and orphans of the gainant dead are the wards of the people—a sacred legacy bequeathed to the United States' protecting care.

11. Foreign emigration, which in the past the state of the s creased the resources of the control of all nations—should be tostered by a liberal and just policy.

12. This convention declares its sympathy with all oppressed people who are struggling for their rights.

Resolved, That we recognize the great principles laid down in the Declaration of Independence as the true platform of democratic government, and we hall with gladness every effort loward making these principles a living reality on every inch of American soil.

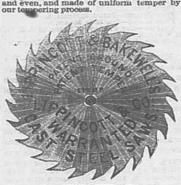

Resolved, That we highly commend the spirit of magnanimity and forbearance with spirit of magnanimity and forbearance with which men who have served in the R-bellion which men who have served in the R-bellion.
